

An aerial photograph of the Kavish Gir Lion Resort. The resort is situated on a lush green hillside, surrounded by dense tropical forest. In the foreground, a row of several bungalows with brown tiled roofs and private swimming pools is visible. A winding river flows along the right side of the property. In the background, a golf course and more resort buildings can be seen amidst the trees.

An aerial photograph of a resort complex. A winding river flows through the upper half of the image. Below the river, a row of small, single-story buildings with terracotta roofs is nestled among lush green trees. In the lower center, there is a larger building complex featuring a bright blue swimming pool with several yellow lounge chairs around it. The surrounding landscape includes green agricultural fields and patches of dry, brownish vegetation. A white text box with a drop shadow is overlaid on the upper part of the image.
